

Resident Appreciation 2025

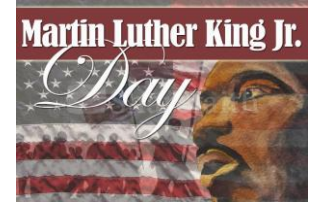

The Tupelo Housing Authority recently hosted Resident Appreciation Day to thank our residents for being an important part of our community. The event was a celebration of togetherness, offering an opportunity for residents and staff to connect in a positive and welcoming environment. We appreciate the cooperation, patience, and community spirit shown by our residents throughout the year, and this day was dedicated to recognizing you. Tupelo Housing Authority is grateful to serve our residents and looks forward to continuing to build a strong, supportive community together.

Cheerful Givers, Inc.

Cheerful Givers, Inc. recently hosted a community giveaway, providing a wide variety of much-needed items to local families and residents. The giveaway included clothing, shoes, household items, books, toys, and non-perishable food items. This generous event reflects Cheerful Givers, Inc.'s continued commitment to supporting and uplifting the community by meeting everyday needs and spreading kindness. We are thankful for their dedication and for the positive impact they continue to make in our community.

Check Smoke Detectors

“Maintenance Matters” by Sylvester Salters

Residents are asked to place any unwanted items outside on Thursday after 5:00 p.m. Maintenance will collect these items on Friday morning. Please note that the next scheduled pickup will be Wednesday, December 24, as the office will be closed.

As temperatures drop below freezing, residents are reminded to allow water to drip slightly to help prevent pipes from freezing.
Failure to do so may result in frozen or burst pipes, which could cause extended water outages.

We appreciate your cooperation and wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Just a Reminder!!! Use of Fireworks are not allowed on any of the Housing Authority properties!!!
