"Message from the Housing Manager" By Tonya Williams

Tupelo Housing Authority is a Great Place to Call Home!

Home is more than an address it is where we find sanctuary and raise our families. Here at the Tupelo Housing Authority, we count on you, our satisfied customers, to tell your family, friends, and neighbors about your experience with Tupelo Housing Authority and the quality of life it affords you.

We want to do more than provide housing, we want to help you meet a higher quality of living. If you have a need or concern, know that we want to help you with them. Our Social Service Department will partner with other agencies to help with the process. If you have a question and do not have the answer, we want to help. Please partner with us in our efforts to meet all your needs.

Contact Tonya Williams at the Rental Office for all your Social Services need.

"Maintenance Matters" By Sylvester Salters

From time to time during your tenancy at Tupelo Housing a maintenance person may need to enter your housing unit. Typically for one of the following reasons:

- To conduct an inspection
- To perform regular maintenance tasks
- To make improvements

When it is necessary for maintenance to enter your unit for any reason other than an emergency, you will be notified in advance. No advance notice is required to enter in case of emergency. However, if an emergency entrance is necessary, a written statement specifying the date, time and purpose will be left in the unit.
